IBCI Building Control Conference, 2003

“Building in Our Changing Environment”

Tuesday, 10th and Wednesday, 11th June 2003

Nuremore Hotel,
Carrickmacross,
Co. Monaghan

The Irish Building Control Institute is pleased to present the IBCI Building Control Conference, 2003. The theme of the conference is "Building in Our Changing Environment" and will afford an opportunity for those involved in building control throughout the state to consider the effects that our changing climate will have on the performance of our buildings and the challenges it presents to designers and builders.

The Conference will be held over two days in the Nuremore Hotel, Carrickmacross. Lunch and refreshments will be provided on both days, with the conference dinner on Tuesday evening. A Trade Exhibition will also be held in conjunction with the conference. The programme will include ample time for discussion and debate.

Day 1 will introduce the topic of climate change and emerging weather trends, developments in European legislation, building in the Scandinavian climate and information regarding insulating materials and practice.

Day 2 will include presentations on recent changes to the building regulations and the Technical Guidance Documents, new trends in drainage design and common defects associated with poor detailing of ventilation, insulation and site drainage. There will be ample time for discussion and debate.

The cost of attendance is €300 per delegate.
